

RACE PROGRAM

The Race Track

Sea to Sky is unique: Four days of racing in the most beautiful terrain, located right at the shore of the Turkish Riviera. Each day has its own style and fun.

We're looking forward to welcome riders from all over the world – as in the last years – to race the MOST ENJOYABLE Extreme Enduro race! The massively growing sport of Extreme Enduro has gathered more and more attention, among the riders as well as in media and Kemer has become THE place to be.

Truly outstanding racing action over four days in four totally different terrains combined with staying in luxury resorts right at the beach of the Turkish Riviera made this event the favorite of all events – not only recognized by the protagonists of the scene such as Graham JARVIS, Mario ROMAN and Wade YOUNG, but also more and more amateur riders are coming to Kemer to enjoy the warm summer at the very end of September – when the weather usually already getting rougher in the rest of Europe.

Race Track

There is only one race that takes you from Sea to Sky!

Beach Race

Wednesday, Sept. 25, 2019 – Start 09:00

Sea to Sky kicks off with the 15 minutes + 1 lap “Beach Race” – a motocross-like race with a mass start along the coastline in front of the Hotels of Kemer village. The track has a lot of sand, natural jumps and a long straight at the shore that allows to go flat out to the max! The result of the “Beach Race” determines the starting order for the “Forest Race” stage in the forests and rocks around Kemer.

Forest Race

Thursday, Sept. 26, 2019 – Start 09:00

On race day #2 the riders will be taken on a time trial in the woods behind Kemer to ride some really cool single trails and gravel roads reaching into the foothills of the Tahtali Mountain. About 80% of the track is new and fresh following an ancient hiking path starting at the beach of Kemer! The Forest Race track will be approximately 40km – mostly with a great sea view – and the fastest riders are expected to reach the finish after just under 2 hours. Again, the results of the Forest Race will determine the starting order for the Canyon Race.

Canyon Race

Friday, Sept. 27, 2019 – Start 09:00

On race day #3

the riders will be taken on a time trial in the river beds behind Kemer to ride some really cool trails and mostly rocky roads reaching into the Kemer Valley

Olympos Mountain Race

Saturday, Sept. 28, 2019 – Start 09:00

Race day #4 and the main event of Sea to Sky will start right at the beach in Camyuva, a town next to Kemer, and it will take the riders all the way from “Sea to Sky” on Sept. 28, 2019.

After the start the riders will follow a riverbed and dive into spectacular trail rides in the lower Olympos mountain area before they reach the tree line – always facing stones in each possible variation. Again, about 70% of the track is all new so even if you've raced Sea to Sky before you'll be surprised by even better tracks at Special Edition 10!

The Gold Medal will be reserved only for the riders who finished canyon and forest race tracks completely and who make it to the finish arch on the peak of the Olympos Mountain at an altitude of 2,365m after about 55km. The organizers expect the fastest riders to reach the finish after little more than three hours and a total of about 30-40 riders to finish the race within the 7 hours limit. There will be some rather technical surprises after the Silver finish that will separate the men from the boys.

The Silver Medal will be handed to riders who are making it all the way to the Silver Finish within the 7 hours of race time.

Those who make it through the riverbed and the first third of the overall track will earn a Bronze Medal. So there will be a great reward and souvenir for the majority of the starters who come prepared and have the skills you need in Extreme Enduro!

Award ceremony and beach, party! Come and see how Extreme Enduro riders party, again ... extreme fun!
